Madam Justice Sandra Day O'Connor
The Supreme Court of the United States
1 First Street, N. E.
Washington, D. C. 20543

Dear Madam Justice:

In March 1986 the Central Intelligence Agency will join our nation in the observance of "National Women's History Week." We celebrate not only the achievements of women of the past, but honor American women who, like yourself, play a vital role in our society today. I would like to extend an invitation to you to be the guest speaker for this special occasion. I know yours is a very busy schedule, but we would be honored by your participation.

It has become a tradition at CIA each year during "Women's History Week" for the Federal Women's Program to offer special programs designed to raise our awareness of the varied contributions of women employees and to foster greater understanding and support for women.

In 1986 we will celebrate this occasion during the week of March 10. The program will be presented in the CIA Headquarters Building auditorium at Langley, Virginia. The day and hour of your presentation could be of your choice as would be the topic of your talk. Special arrangements may be made through our Women's Program Manager, [redacted] Office of Equal Employment Opportunity. She can be contacted at [redacted]

Sincerely,

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
